

God designed you to be a father, provider, protector, and leader.

That is a big responsibility. And, you're the man for the job!

But, it's a job you don't have to do alone. God, your Father, will help you every day! In fact, God gave you a Father's Manual and it's the book of Proverbs.

Proverbs 1:8, "Hear, my son, your father's instruction..."

The primary duty of a father is not what one little boy said..."The primary duty of my dad is to take out the trash." The primary duty of a father is not even to bring home the bacon. The primary duty of a father is not to fix what's broken. The primary of a duty of a father is to teach holy living to his children.

In this process of teaching there is one compelling overarching consummate summary lesson and that is to teach them wisdom. The word which dominates the Proverbs is the word "wisdom."

Teaching your children spiritual wisdom is the noblest and greatest and purest pursuit of your life.
